Festival Clips de Paname Short Film Competition Internal Regulations

I/ Participation Conditions

To participate in the Short Film competition at the Clips de Paname Festival, simply register through the platform by filling out the required information and paying the 10-euro participation fee.

Any application without payment of the participation fee will be rejected.

II/ Selection Process

Once the application period has ended, the organizers will review all the short films received to select those that will make up the official selection. A jury will award several prizes during the festival.

The association Clap de Paname will not provide any details about its choices, which remain at its discretion.

III/ Acceptance of the Regulations

Submitting a project to the Clips de Paname festival organized by the association Clap de Paname implies full and unconditional acceptance of these regulations.

Clap de Paname reserves the right to modify or cancel the conditions and will not be held liable for any consequences. In such cases, it will ensure that the applicants are informed as soon as possible.

IV/ Data Protection and Privacy

The personal information collected as part of this process will be handled in accordance with the law of January 6, 1978, known as the "Data Protection Act."

Under this law, participants have the right to access, modify, correct, and delete their personal data.

V/ Image Rights

The selected participants authorize the association Clap de Paname to take photos and videos and to use them for promotional and communication purposes on the website www.clapdepaname.com and on the association's social media platforms.
